Languages: English (native), Japanese (native), Mandarin Chinese, French
Coursework in Classical Chinese; fieldwork on Squliq Atayal (Austronesian, Taiwan); structural knowledge of Patzún Kaqchikel (Mayan, Guatemala)

Areas of interest

Broad interests: formal cross-linguistic syntax-semantics
Syntax and semantics of Mandarin Chinese and Japanese computational tools and approaches for theoretical linguistics
Narrow interests: Mandarin comparatives, focus interpretation, disjunction and alternative questions, hypertext corpora, morphosyntax of Mayan Agent Focus
Areas of further research: semantics of less-studied languages, multidominance and linearization

Education

09/2009– PhD student in Linguistics, Massachusetts Institute of Technology.
06/2007 M.A. in Linguistics, University of Chicago.
Thesis: A New Syntax-Semantics for the Mandarin bǐ Comparative
Advisors: Christopher Kennedy, Jason Merchant
06/2007 B.A. with Honors in Linguistics and Mathematics, University of Chicago.
Dean's list 2003–2007. GPA: 3.8/4.0. Phi Beta Kappa.

Grants, fellowships, and honors

2011 MIT Ken Hale Fund fieldwork grant for continued research on Kaqchikel Mayan
2010 Microsoft Research iCampus Technology Innovation Student Prize at MIT

- 2009– Kenan Sahin Presidential Fellowship for doctoral study at MIT
- 2007–2008 J. William Fulbright Fellowship, English language teaching, Taiwan

Teaching and education experience

Massachusetts Institute of Technology: theoretical linguistics

- 2010– Undergraduate Research Opportunities Program (UROP)
Advised and collaborated with undergraduate students on the use of hypertext corpora to investigate syntactic constituency:
- Camille DeJarnett (Spring 2012)

- Daniel Martelly (Spring 2012)
- Alyssa Mensch (January 2012)
- Patrick Hulin (January 2011, spring 2011, summer 2011)
- Patrick Hurst (spring 2011)
- Anthony Nguyen (summer 2010)

Fall 2011 Teaching Assistant
24.902 Undergraduate Syntax with Sabine Iatridou
Led recitations, held office hours, guest-lectured, and graded assignments, papers, and exams.

Spring 2011 Teaching Assistant
24.900 Introduction to Linguistics with David Pesetsky
Led recitations, held office hours, and graded assignments, papers, and exams.

WordPress Foundation/Google Summer of Code: open source web application development

Summer 2011 Lead mentor for Ben Balter, Document Revisions project
Mentor for Mihai Chereji, HTML5 localStorage Drafts project

Fulbright Taiwan: elementary EFL

A.Y. 2007–2008 Fulbright Fellow. Yilan County Department of Education, Taiwan
Cotaught English to students in rural Taiwanese elementary schools.

Concordia Language Villages: Japanese language immersion education

Summer 2007 Credit Teacher
Taught one year's worth (180 hours) of high school Japanese in an immersion setting.

Summers 2005–6 Assistant Dean
Assisted the Dean in both academic and business operations of a Japanese language immersion summer camp serving 200 children per summer. Led training and management of bilingual staff.

Summers 2003–4 Two Week Curriculum Facilitator
Lead and supported two week program staff in the counseling and teaching of 100 students in an immersive language camp setting.

Summers 2001–2 Junior Counselor
Lived with and taught Japanese to students, ages 7–18, in an immersive language camp setting.

University of Chicago: peer mentorship and mathematics

A.Y. 2003–2007 Counselor, Department of Mathematics Young Scholars Program

09/2006 Student Director, New Student Orientation.
A.Y. 2005–2006 Assistant Resident Head (RA), Undergraduate Student Housing
A.Y. 2004–2005 VIGRE Course Assistant (TA)
Calculus I, II (151, 152) with Sameer D’Costa
Led problem sessions, held office hours, and graded assignments.

U. of Minnesota Talented Youth Math Program: math for advanced high school students

A.Y. 2002–2003 Teaching Assistant
Honors Calculus II with Thomas Schwartzbauer
Led problem sessions, held office hours, and graded exams.
