

1. Introductions again (if necessary)
2. Are the underlined parts constituents? Use the tests from this past week to check. (Adger, 2003: 99)
 - (1) a. Anson shot the pterodactyl with his rifle in the jungle.
 - b. Anson shot the pterodactyl with his rifle in the jungle.
 - c. Anson shot the pterodactyl with his rifle in the jungle.
 - d. Anson shot the pterodactyl with his rifle in the jungle.
 - e. Anson shot the pterodactyl with his rifle in the jungle.
 - f. Anson shot the pterodactyl with his rifle in the jungle.
 - g. Anson shot the pterodactyl with his rifle in the jungle.

- (2) a. * Anson shot the pterodactyl with his rifle in the jungle.
- b. Anson shot the pterodactyl with his rifle in the jungle.
- c. * Anson shot the pterodactyl with his rifle in the jungle.
- d. Anson shot the pterodactyl with his rifle in the jungle.
only if the pterodactyl has his (=Anson's?) rifle
- e. Anson shot the pterodactyl with his rifle in the jungle.
- f. Anson shot the pterodactyl with his rifle in the jungle.
- g. Anson shot the pterodactyl with his rifle in the jungle.
only if the rifle is specifically in the jungle

Anson shot the pterodactyl with his rifle in the jungle.